

GNSS Retroreflector Arrays

- ILRS Standard for GNSS retroreflectors is posted and advertised
 - ◆ Some additional constraints on ground pattern have been suggested
- Talk given at the Third Meeting of the International Committee on GNSS in Pasadena on December 8 -12, 2008
- GPS
 - ◆ Meeting at Lockheed-Martin on February 18 to discuss placement options for arrays on GPS-3 series (2014 - 17 timeframe)
 - ◆ Talk invited at the Users Partnership Council on May 14
 - ◆ Keep feeding NASA material to argue for the arrays
- Galileo
 - ◆ Met with the Director of ASI to discuss our needs and requirements on Galileo
 - ◆ Dialogue underway; they are focused on the ILRS Standard with uncoated cubes
 - ◆ Trying to get some cubes to INFN for testing
- COMPASS
 - ◆ Success with the uncoated cubes on COMPASS
- Signal link test underway on the GNSS satellites - Graham Appleby